Real-Time Communication System Powered by Al for Specially Abled

A large number of disabilities are preventable, including those arising from medical issues, the lack of accessibility in national signlanguages, when a child has difficulty hearing, the absence of light makes it difficult for the hearing impaired to engage with others.

